

FANTASTIC MR FOX

This story is about a fox named Mr. Fox. In order to feed his family, Mr. Fox steals chickens, ducks, turkeys, and cider each night from three mean and wealthy farmers: Boggis, Bunce and Bean.

The farmers are fed up with Mr. Fox's theft and try to kill him. One night, the farmers wait outside Mr. Fox's foxhole in an attempt to ambush him. When Mr. Fox emerges from his home, the farmers fire at him. However, the farmers only succeed in blowing off Mr. Fox's tail. Determined to catch him, the farmers use spades and shovels to dig their way into the foxes' home.

However, Mr. and Mrs. Fox and their four children escape by digging a tunnel deeper into the ground. The farmers then use bulldozers in order to dig deeper into the ground, but to no avail. The three men therefore decide to watch the entrance to the fox tunnel with shotguns at the ready, while the farmers' men patrol the area to make sure the foxes do not escape.

FANTASTIC MR FOX

After three days of starving, Mr. Fox comes up with a plan. He and his children dig a tunnel into Boggis's chicken house. There, they steal some chickens and depart without leaving any sign of their presence.

They also raid Bunce's storehouse of ducks, geese and vegetables as well as Bean's underground cellar of apple cider. Along the way, the foxes meet Badger and other digging animals who are also starving due to the farmers' siege of the hillside. MrFox, feeling responsible for the whole affair, invites the other animals to a feast made from the loot. At the feast, the animals decide to make an underground town where they will be safe, while discreetly obtaining food from the farmers. Meanwhile, Boggis, Bunce and Bean keep guard on the tunnel entrance in pouring rain, unaware that Mr Fox and his friends are stealing their food right under their noses
